SPRINGFIELD ART GUILD

WHAT? WHERE? WHEN?

Are you getting used to our extended meeting schedule?
Here's roughly what to expect:

6:00

Doors open for the meeting; refreshments and previously used art or printed materials will be set up during this time and offered for sale.

6:30

Those interested in SAGE (Springfield Art Guild Entrepreneurs) group can have a seat in the front of the room and hear October Entrepreneur, Sy Wengovitz describe how he applied for--and received!--an endowment and how you could too. Note: those who wish to continue to socialize are most welcome to do so. Stepping towards the refreshment table will help contain the wonderful sounds of friendship and laughter.

7:00

Feast for the Eyes (an art display by a member) will be set up near the refreshments, and the artist may comment briefly (or not, as they choose) for 5-10 minutes at the display table. October's contributor is Teresa Brunson.

7:10

Spotlight: An additional member will talk briefly about an aspect of his/her art for about 5-10 minutes at the front of the room. October's Spotlight speaker is Mary Rose Janya .

7:20-7:30

Socializing wraps up.

7:30

Our Business Meeting begins. Everyone is requested to take a seat and participate so you will know what's happening in SAG and how you can benefit.

8:00-9:00

The Featured Speaker will speak, and October's speaker is SAG VP Stephanie Bianco. She will describe and demonstrate how she makes a basic video using Window's Live Movie Maker, and why you might want to do so, also.

Yes, there'll be a handout! And of course, a short video about, well, how to make the brief video she just described. :--)

October in the Mid-Atlantic is when nature transitions from summer babies and flowers through the brilliant yellows, oranges and reds of fall foliage into the ochre and browns of coastal marshes and broad-leaf forests. Winter will follow soon with its quiet snowy fields and dark green coniferous trees. – A Solo Exhibition by Donna DeMoranville Turgeon with other artists in the gallery echoing the theme in their work.
