Amy Shawley Presents: Golden Paints Watermedia Lecture/Demo

Discover the range of GOLDEN paints that are fluid in motion: High Flow, Fluid Colors, and QoR Watercolor!

We'll begin with traditional watercolor techniques using QoR Watercolor, then move into more contemporary ideas including using GOLDEN Acrylic products for marker and spray applications. Explore an assortment of techniques such as: pouring, staining, granulation, splash, and “white-out” tricks for saving that uncooperative watercolor painting! We will then work with QoR Watercolors in combination with GOLDEN Acrylics to explore the potential when layering the two. Attendees will also learn how to take advantage of GOLDEN and QoR Grounds to create fun, textured surfaces for their work. Finally, we will cover the options of Archival Varnishing of watercolor surfaces, for preservation without using glass!

Speed Bump by Dave Coverly

SAG Challenge for our November Meeting

Why participate in the challenges? First they are fun and the challenges are a great way to overcome the “white canvas/paper” syndrome and just play. Not knowing what to paint or draw is something we all face at times. Just use this photo as your starting point, a reference or an inspiration for art making ideas. The challenges make it easy to overcome “what to paint” and try different techniques you don’t normally do. Usually just paint? Maybe try collage or drawing or a different approach to painting. That’s what’s great about a challenge.

We hope to see your work at the November meeting and now you can get your creative juices flowing for the January challenge too.

This photograph been provided by the photographer for use in the November photo challenge. Any SAG member may create a piece of art based on/inspired by the photograph. The artist may display or sell the work created as they would with any art they create

With so much happening in November & December we have decided to take a break from the challenge in December, but here's a sneak peek at the January challenge for anyone who wants to start working on it early. If you have any questions please contact Thomas Kollins, the coordinator of the program (703-323-8186 thomaskollins@gmail.com).

Join SAG-Led Nature Journaling in November

By Elaine Sevy

Nature Journaling Monday Nov. 13th
3:00-5:00 p.m at Lake Accotink Park (note the time change)

The year is winding down, so don't miss a chance to enjoy this lovely season. Fall is arriving slowly to our woodlands, so there's still time to capture the colorful leaves and foliage in your sketchbook and/or camera.

Goldenrods and Asters are still blooming, and feeding local and migrating birds and pollinators.

Lake Accotink is home to many waterfowl including Colorful Wood Ducks, Great Blue Herons, Egrets, Cormorants, Kingfishers and so many others. Several Bald Eagles also make the park their home.

In addition to art supplies, consider bringing binoculars and something to sit on. A chair is nice, but even a comfy towel will do. Dress in layers.

We will meet by the park's marina and venture forth from there.

Please text or call me—Elaine Sevy, 703-901-5612, if you can't find us or have questions (email address is yorkiemum.sevy95@gmail.com).

Nature Journaling improves your observation skills, helps you become comfortable sketching and painting outdoors, and doing studies that inspire future paintings.

Directions to Lake Accotink Park (Don't use GPS devices):

Take Springfield/644W exit from I-95, which puts you on Old Keene Mill Road. At 3rd stoplight, turn right on Hanover Rd. Continue on Hanover (through residential section) to Highland Ave. Turn Left.

Turn right on Accotink Park Rd. The park entrance is on the left (an industrial area is on the right). Accotink Park Rd. continues here. Take it until you reach the small parking lot past the dam and railroad trestle.

Pictures from our September meeting where Darlene Kaplan taught us Chinese Brush Stroke painting. Everyone was engaged and loved it. Thank you Darlene!

SAG received the email below and we wanted to pass it along to anyone who might be interested in online acrylic painting courses by Mike Svob. Check out the email below.

My name is Mike Svob.

Since 1982, I have been a full-time artist based in Vancouver, Canada. I am the author of "Paint Red Hot Landscapes That Sell" and a former president of the Federation of Canadian Artists. Over the past 30 years, I have shared my skills and love for painting via workshops across North America and Europe. Through these workshops, I have taught and mentored hundreds of artists at different stages in their development.

This Fall, I am embarking on a new and exciting project - an online course for acrylic painters of all skill levels. You can get a taste of the course and my teaching style on my new YouTube Channel https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCDsYRDhwRZWod_H1zkgZZ0Q where I share painting tips, techniques, and business advice on a weekly basis.

If you are interested I encourage you to sign up at <https://www.mikesvob.com/acrylic-painting-course> for updates and additional information.

Thanks for your time.
Best regards,

Mike Svob

A B O U T T H E J U R O R:

Beverly Ryan's work currently includes painting, printmaking and sculpture. Her abstract and/or narrative oil paintings have been known for years. Recently, she has added metalworking and soft sculpture to her body of work. Ryan holds an MS from Columbia University and a BA from Franklin and Marshall College. She studied at the Corcoran College of Art and Design with William Christenberry, William Willis and Steve Cushner. She has had two artist residencies at The Vermont Studio Center and in 2016, participated in the Drawing Marathon with Graham Nickson at NYSS.

Ryan has shown locally, regionally and internationally. Her works have won numerous awards and are in private and corporate collections. Ryan's most recent solo exhibit "Drone Zone" featured paintings, prints and sculpture as an installation at the Art League Gallery, Alexandria, VA. In this show she explored images of drone warfare, and her paintings referenced privacy issues as weaponized UAVs and facial recognition software become more ubiquitously present in today's world.

Ryan teaches abstract painting, narrative painting and encaustic painting at The Art League School, Alexandria, VA. She has been a resident artist at the Torpedo Factory Art Center, Alexandria, VA, since 2001.
